THE LEGISLATURE

EIGHTY-FOURTH DAY.

TUESDAY, Sept. 23. The House met at 10 o'clock. REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Noble Muller presented the report of the commerce committee on a bill relating to wholesale business, recommending a substitute bill to the favorable consideration of the House. Laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

Noble Isenberg presented the report of the edcation committee on the census bill, recommending its passage with certain amendments. Laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

Noble Isenberg presented the report of the education committee on the bill to establish a distinct bureau of education for Hawaiian youths abroad, recommending a substitute bill to the favorable consideration of the House. Laid on the table to be considered with the bill. Noble Isenberg presented the report of the education committee on petitions for a schoolhouse at Kamanu, Hamakua, a schoolhouse at Puakoa, South Kohala, and making the native school at Punaluu, Kau, an English school, recommending that they be referred to the Board of Education. Adopted.

Rep. Hookano presented the report of the judiciary committee on petition that certain police of Honolulu be paid for six months' services, recommending it be referred to the Attorney-General to consult with the Marshal on the case; and on a petition for the restoration of land taken by the Board of Education at Kunihu, recommending it be referred to the President of the Board of Education. Adopted.

Rep Hookano presented the report of the judiciary committee on petition that Mr. Kealakai be paid $500 for land taken for road purposes. They find that petitioner is a tenant on the land, 812 feet were taken, the Government in 1889 appointed a commission on the road damages, several tenants like Kealakai presented claims, Kealakai did not present a claim because he did not know that he could claim as lessee, and he suffered damages. Committee recommend that petitioner be paid $200 damages.

Rep. Brown said an item had been inserted for road damages, but this claim was not concluded. Mr. Grieve owner of the land, got $600 damages, and the petitioner only lost part of his frontage. He moved that $100 be granted Kealakai.

R. p. Hookano said that an adjoining tenant who only lost 600 feet got $500, but committee awarded Kealakai only $200 because he had neglected to present his claim to the commission.

Noble Widemann said Mr. Grieve art of the land from Kealakai, and the tenant was entitled to a reduction in his rent accordingly. This House had no right to pay petitioner anything.

Rep. Brown explained that the adjoining tenant referred to got $500 on account of a building being cut down with the land.

Rep. Rosa considered that this was a case where a man who lost his rights through ignorance had a right to ask redress from the Legislature. If the House rejected the petition this man would be forced to a lawsuit which he could not afford. Many natives sleep over their rights THE members of the "P. H. Brooks Division," Uniform Rank K. of P., are ordered to appear in full dress them special favors. He thought > Noble Widemann did not know whether $200 or $100 was sufficient, but he could not admit the principle that public money should be given for charity. This man had a straight road to travel, which was to go to his lessor and say, "you have taken part of the land from me; refund me a just proportion of the rental." The lessor should not wait to be sued. If the hon, member was so charitably inclined, he could bring this man's suit for him.

Rep. Rosa said he was not charit-Noble J. M. Horner regarded the matter in the same light as Noble Widemann.

The report was adopted. Rep. Lucas from the printing committee reported the bill to amend and revise the Constitution printed. Noble Cornwell presented the majority report of the select committee on constitutional amendment. It declares the bill to provide for a convention unconstitutional, and has no objection to any amendment the Legislature may pass. The report is signed by W. H. Cornwell, Jos. Marsden, H. P. Baldwin, A. P. Pachaole, G. N. Wilcox, and P. P. Kanoa. Rep. Hookano favored the report but held doubts on some points, and if these were cleared up he would sign the report.

Rep. Rickard moved that the report of the committee be adopted. Rep. Hookano understood that Rep. Marques intended to present a minority report. He moved the report be laid on the table to be considered with the minority report.

Noble Widemann said Rep. Marques spoke, at the meeting when the division took place, as if he would leave the matter to the House. A meeting was appointed for this chamber but the members did not attend.

Noble Cornwell had not heard of a minority report. He had under-stood that the members who did not sign the report were in favor of it

Rep. Nawahi moved that, if there be no minority report, this report be made the special order for Thursday. The committee had borrowed its law from somebody else. They quoted decisions and law that none of their knew. The chairman never could speak more than five minutes at a time, but here he produces a report that takes an hour to read. What had the Chiasse question to do with the constitutional convention? Nothing to do with it. He wanted time to prepare himself for answering the committee. The report attacked the members who promoted the convention, in some instances its language being insulting. The committee said the present Constitution contained the same provisions for amendment as that of 1864. Why, then, had not this method been followed in 1887? It looked as if the committee wanted the people to adopt the means of 1887 to obtain their wishes. The report should not be rushed through. He did not believe in violence, his physique was not fit for a warrior. There was a great deal of talk in the newspapers about foreign representatives interfering with Hawaiian affairs. These gentlemen should mind their own business. It was through outside meddling that the American warship came here the other day only to find that she was not needed. Rep. Brown did not think that Rep. Marques could consistently bring in a minority report, his bill to amend the Constitution having been distributed to the House today. There was no need of postponing consideration. Members had had, since the matter was introduced, ample time to make up their minds. The House should go on with consideration of the report to-day. He moved the House take recess till 2 o'clock.

Recess from 12:20 to 2 o'clock.

THE CASTLE LIBEL CASE.

The Evidence of Record

POLICE COURT, Sept. 22nd. H. N. Castle, libel; Paul Neumann and C. L. Carter for prosecution; L. A. Thurston for defendant. Prosecution, files specifications of charges, to which defendant pleads not guilty. H. M. Whitney sworn says: The Hawaiian Gazette Company is a corporation. It pub ishes the Daily Pacific Commercial Aduertiser. If anyone is editor of that paper it is defendant. Lately he has been reporting the Legi-lature. If anyone is responsible he is the one; nominally he is the editor. Nobody is registered as editor in Interior Department, perhaps defendant and I are both registered. (P. C. Advertiser produced) this is the issue of Sept. 17th. G. W. Macfarlane sworn, says: had by the action of Government | Oa September 17, 1890, I was Chamberlain and bave beet such since October, 1888, (article read from paper) statements in article are untrue. I never presented any bill, for State dinner to Admiral Brown, to Minister Foreign Affairs, and he never refused to pay any.

Cross-examined .- I have presented vouchers at the Foreign Office for balls, not for dinners. I have not asked the Minister to pay for dinner to Admiral Brown. I have submitted vouchers for balls and they have been approved. The Minister has never refused to approve my vouchers. We have never had any unpleasantness about vouchers or anything else. I asked Mr. Cummins about a report that he objected to me as Chamberlain but we had no unpleasantness about it. J. A. Cummins, sworn, says: (Looks at article in the paper), nothing in this article is true. I was Minister Foreign Affairs on Sept. 17th. The Chamberlain did not attempt to collect any such bill of me. I did not refused to pay it, and we have had no unpleasantness.

Cross.examined .- I do'nt remember making statements to anybody like those in this article. The Chamberlain and I had a difference about another matter of business.

Paul Neumann, sworn, says: I have read the article in question. The only conclusion one can come to from reading the article is that it charges the Chamberlain with trying to obtain money dishonestly from the Minister.

Prosecution rests; defendant moves for discharge. 1st, because no malice is alleged or proved; 2d, there is no libel per se in the words used and there is no innuendo making the words libelous.

The Court finds that no libel is proven, and that the testimony does not warrant commitment for trial; the defendant is therefore discharged.

The new Baltimore sugar refinery is nearing completion. It is expected to be ready for work in October. It will employ 200 men and turn out 1,500 barrels of sugar

The Cuban sugar crop is reported to amount to 665,233 tons, an increase of 102,980 tons, or 24 per cent, as compared with that of fast BURSOID.
